The Red Dragons 1953 Football Campaign

By RICHARD de FRANCES, Publicity Director

In planning this booklet with its succeeding issues, the staff will devote an entire page of each issue to relating the overall football story as it develops from one game to the next. We hope that this will enable area fans, as well as the many visitors who attend our games, to become more familiar with the Red Dragons of Cortland State.

Today, the students, faculty and friends of Cortland State Teachers College wish to extend a welcome to Coach Ossie Solom and his Indians from Springfield College of Massachusetts.

This will be the eighth and final game between the two teams. The Indians have provided strong opposition over the years gone by, having beaten the Red Dragons five times while losing once. Last year's game ended in a 14-14 tie, as a result of a brilliant running and passing duel between Springfield and Cortland respectively. Since Springfield does not return to the Cortland schedule in 1954, the Red Dragons will go all out to win this last one.

Fans will be quick to note the fact that a major rule change has gone into effect this year eliminating the use of the two-platoon system. The best way to explain this rule is to understand that each half of the football game is divided into three time segments: The first quarter, the first eleven minutes of the second quarter, and the last four minutes of the second quarter. No player may return to the game during the same time segment from which he was removed. Gone is the chance to substitute with each change of the ball, the kicking specialist who enters for one play, the running of quarterbacks on and off with bench strategy. Since both the Indians and the Red Dragon coaches have favored the two-platoon system in the past, today's contest might well be decided by the ease with which one or the other has made the change.

The 1952 season found Cortland State compiling the best record in the nation for small colleges in the area of pass defense where the opposition was limited to 45.9 yards per game. This record, plus fine all around offensive and defensive play, gave Cortland a fine record last year in one of the toughest schedules yet faced by the Dragons.

"Chugger" Davis and the team face a herculean task if they are to equal or surpass the record of the '52 team. Gone from the squad through graduation and other reasons are twenty-seven men including the following fourteen senior letter men: Vince Mascia, Norm Foster, Whit Armstrong, Gerry Riendeau, Joe LaRocca, Joe Mancarella, Bob Keenan, Larry Martin, Mike Norris, Ron Schaertl, Louis Zych, Craig Hitchcock, Richard Poole and Albert Renken. Returning are but eight lettermen: John Arcaro, Alan Chase, Ray Cosens, Leo Hoppey, Chester Pelsang, Louis Pettinelli, Donald Quinn and Arthur Riedel. Also returning from last year's varsity squad are: Frank Brusager, Richard Lee, Robert Miller, James Wachob and Eugene Wheeler.

This contest is the first of seven games to be played as listed on the Cortland schedule, two more of which are home contests.

On Saturday night, September 26th, Cortland travels to play the University of Buffalo. Saturday, October 10th, will find the Dragons away again as they play another arc-light contest against Alfred University. Friday, October 16th brings the Dragons into a tussle with Ithaca College at Ithaca. Saturday, October 24th Brockport State provides the opposition at Randall Field. Hofstra College comes to Cortland for the annual homecoming game on Saturday, October 31st. The following Saturday, November 7th, the Dragons wind up their season by invading Pennsylvania to play the East Stroudsburg State eleven.

The Coaching Staff

Eckhard, Davis, Donati, Weber, Bub, Stephens

Carl "Chugger" Davis is in his nineteenth season as head coach of football at Cortland State Teachers College. Prior to this year he had compiled a record of 72 wins, 39 defeats and 9 ties for a .649 percentage. His outstanding teams were in the years between 1932-1935 when a winning streak of games was marred by only a single defeat. The best post-war season for Chugger was in 1948 when the team lost only one game. In addition to coaching football, Coach Davis has also piloted the baseball team to winning ways most consistently. He also coached basketball until 1950. The past four seasons have seen his teams win 37 contests while losing only 10 contests. Coach Davis is a graduate of Springfield (Mo.) College. Later he did his graduate work at Springfield (Mass.) College.

Robert J. "Doc" Weber is beginning his second year as line coach here at Cortland. Previously he had earned a doctor's degree at the University of Iowa where he also played football as an undergraduate. He had five year's experience in public school teaching as well as teaching at Iowa.

Roland Eckard is coach of the Junior Varsity Football team. He is a graduate of Ohio State University and taught high school at Painesville, Ohio, prior to his entry into the Air Force, where he served as a bombardier during World War II. In the post-war period he completed work leading to a masters degree, after which he returned to Painesville for two years before coming to Cortland in 1948. During the winter months he coaches the gym team.

John Donati, a newcomer to the coaching staff, will be backfield coach. He is a graduate of Syracuse University where he played four seasons of football in the backfield. Last year he coached the Frosh football team at Syracuse University, a team which played Cortland's J. V. squad, so one may say that he is not a total stranger to our campus.

Richard Stephens and Robert Bub are the student coaches on the staff. Dick is a senior who will assist the backfield coach. Bob played at full-back last year (Frosh) and is now working with the ends.

Dr. D. V. SMITH

It is our feeling at Cortland that intercollegiate athletics and the contacts made through them are important to the men on the teams and also to all members of the student body. We hope that our representatives in all sports will continue to show the high standards of sportsmanship which make Cortland sport events valuable to players and spectators and a pleasure to watch. We are proud of our teams and their opponents on the 1953-1954 schedules.

Football is unique among sports in that it places emphasis on body contact while still placing a premium on the possibilities for the skilled tactician. At the same time it requires the utmost coordination among the members of the team. Football serves as a training ground for the development of those high qualities required for citizens in a democracy.

Prof. T. Fred Holloway enters his 16th season as head coach of Varsity Soccer at Cortland State. He has had four seasons when his teams lost only a single contest (1939, 1941, 1949, 1952) so that we can readily see why each year his team is ranked among the leaders of the collegiate soccer teams in the East.

Last year was a banner year for the "Mules" as they won seven games while losing only one. Prof lost Ted Woods, Joe Levorchick, Andy Platea, Ted Hardy, Gene Palmer, Gerry Theisen, Charlie Harris, Joe Vorbach through graduation and Clare Wallace who is student teaching at present. Returning players are Joe DiPace, Vince Palmieri, Clarence Mephram, Gerry Cox, Herb Torrington, Bob Vogel, Ted Galasieski, George McCabe, Marty Freiworth, Glenn Stevens, Bob Manderano, Al

Dodge, Walt Vogel and Don Schmidt. This year the schedule will provide quite a challenge to the team who will be trying to better last season's record, which is as follows:

1952 CORTLAND SOCCER RECORD

Cortland 2	Cornell University	1
Cortland 1	Springfield College	3
